Department of Geography, M.S. Kakade College Someshwarnagar, Tal. Baramati, Dist. Pune.

ABSTRACT

Women empowerment is give power the women to take their own decision for the personal development. Empowering women is to make them independently freedom in all aspects from thought, rights and decisions etc., by living all the society for both male and female.

KEYWORDS :Women empowerment , rights and decisions ,independently freedom .

INTRODUCTION:

National Mission for empowerment of women was introduced and declared by the Government of India.

International women's day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also makes a call to action for accelerating gender parity.

"The story of women's struggle for equality belongs to no single feminist nor to any one organization but to the collective efforts of all who care about human rights," Says Journalist and socio-political activist Gloria Steinem.

International Women's Day is celebrated on March 8, every year. It commemorates the movements for women's rights.

The position of women all over the world has risen in cannot be believed in the 20th century. We find that it has been very low status in 18th,19th century in India and elsewhere when they were treated like objects that can be bought and sold for a longtime women in India and elsewhere when they were treated like objects that can be bought and sold for a longtime women in India remained within the four walls of their households.

Rural women are key agents for development. They play a catalytic role towards achievement of transformational economic, environmental and social changes required for sustainable development. But limited access to credit health care and education are among the many challenges they face. These are further aggravated by the global food and economic crises and climate change.

Empowering them is essential, not only for the wellbeing of individuals, families and rural communities, but also for overall economic productivity given women's large presence in the agricultural workforce worldwide.

EDUCATION OF WOMEN –

Education to women is the most important and powerful instruments of changing their position the society. Education is brings about reduction in inequalities and also act as a means to improve their status within the family. In order to encourage education of women at all levels and to acquaintance of education, school, colleges and even universities were established exclusively for women in the state Health and well beings is a concept related to the substantial differences between women and men in their access to sufficient nutrition, healthcare and reproductive facilities and to issues of fundamental safety and integrity of person.

WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS –

Women entrepreneur's become the chief support of business. The work very able to produce a result and capably, so it becomes necessary to encourage the women entrepreneurs by Government their family and society. They also become a part of development of country, the looking forward to something regarding supportive plans.

Women development Programme –

- Formation and training of self-help group
- Group development
- Capacity building
- Income generation activities
- Credit and savings mobilization
- Establishment of linkages.

WOMEN STATUS -

Today, women status is increases by various social movements and Governments acts, so benefited to women empowerment.

Women have played on important role in India's independence struggle and some social movements change the old traditional practices in the society.

Today, women share all over the field equal status of men. More stress should be laid on empowering rural areas women and their progress and development.

Women empowerment refers to increasing, growing, improving and the support the education, social, economic and political and legal strength of the powers of women. It concerns to an environment where there is no gender bias and have equal, some rights in community and society.

Today, the importance of empowering women to result is better preparing educated, peaceful, healthy, successful and prosperous society with strong educational facilities.

CONCLUSION –

The Present deliberation will go contextual with the realm of women's empowerment in sustainable development. The sustainability of agriculture development has become a prerogative to the women's participation.
