

A STUDY OF DISTRIBUTION OF SOCIAL WELFARE FUNDS IN MORAYUR PANCHAYATH OF KERALA

Kiran Bitla
Senior Lecturer , A.R. Burla College.

ABSTRACT :

Today a few people were living without fulfilling their basic needs throughout their life .Through social welfare government guarantee the security of the general public. The significant goal of the examination are to discover the issues in the dispersion of social welfare assets, To break down whether the appropriation is sufficient lastly to recommend therapeutic estimates issues in the circulation. The present investigation appears there is a few issues in the distribution and arrangement of social welfare reserves.

KEYWORDS: general public , social welfare assets.

1. INTRODUCTION

The term welfare is every now and again utilized by social specialists and financial analysts .The making of welfare is the significant obligation of the legislature. There are diverse welfare programs were actualized by the administration .Welfare is an outlandish idea without making a few looses making of welfare among all resident. It is a flat out to development of creating nations. Through government executing may welfare programs, designation of reserve and its appropriation is a trouble idea with in regards to managerial specialist. Benefits is one welfare program by the administration. Benefits is customary installments made by the legislature (both focus and state) to the habitation of that country .There are diverse methodologies in the allotment and conveyance of annuity among through the Panchayat raj framework. Social welfare is a program is any of a verity of government program intended to shield native from the financial hazard and uncertainty of life .The most conmen kind of the program give advantage to older or resigned individuals .The main character of a welfare program or security program is to ensure the native of the nation .These program gives advantage to the individuals who live past their capacity or qualification to participate in productive work to the individuals who turned out to be for all time debilitated ,other than through work damage and who are not secured under some incapacity .The fundamental worry of social welfare-destitution ,handicap and seniority individuals .

Conveyance of social welfare support were exceedingly compelling with the impact from the Panchayat raj framework in our nation. In this substance, it is critical to investigate how far the appropriation of welfare support programs can make change in the lives of its individuals by empowering monetarily and socially. It is likewise basic to break down how far the circulation of reserve is sufficient .An investigated examination on the appropriation of social welfare finance in Morayur Panchayath has been done as such far. Thus the examination has much essentialness in present.

OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

1. To break down different social welfare reserves giving in Morayur Panchayath.
2. To break down whether the conveyance of social welfare finance is satisfactory and noteworthy in Morayur Panchayath.
3. To investigate the issues in the circulation of social welfare finance in Morayur Panchayath.
4. To recommend therapeutic measures for the issues in the conveyance of store.

METHODOLOGY

For the present examination, "distinct research technique" is utilized by examiner. For gather information, "essential" source and "optional "source were embraced. For present examination, the examples were taken from 300 recipients from Morayur Panchayath by irregular testing. For the investigation, the information were gathered by utilizing meeting plan as a device. The gathered information were investigated with straightforward measurable system as it were.

THEORETICAL REVIEW

There are a few sorts of social welfare reserves given by Indian government to approach in reverse segment to the standard of the general public .The real sorts social welfare reserves are arranged as ,

SUGGESTIONS

Government should build the measure of benefits. Government ought to give support dependent on the necessities of people. Government ought to give better mindfulness program among the general public .Government ought to give the two benefits and plans in right time. Government ought to ascertain right estimation in APL and BPL classification. Actualize new sorts of benefits and plans for the welfare of the general public. Government ought to give better answer for deficiency in dissemination.

REFERENCES

1. <http://www.cswb.gov.in/>
2. While in principle a Social Fund is a financing facility, in practice the term has become synonymous to the agencies that typically run the financing facility