ABSTRACT:

This article talks about what is plagiarism?, and indicates how one is able to find out that an individual's publication is plagiarised, and creates awareness as to why one should not indulge in dishonest practices. Thus we need to understand the rise in the need for a check on plagiarism to sustain the quality of publications in education, as plagiarism is an evil ethics that brings discord in a society if this dishonesty is not eradicated.

Abstract Report: Title is academic and sounding name.

INTRODUCTION:

Plagiarism is derived from the Latin word "plagiarius" which means stealing someone else's work. Plagiarism is stealing ones ideas, thoughts and expressions and representing as one's own original work. It is a serious ethical offense in academics and industry.

Introduction Report: This Article Include Full Introduction, Methods, Results & Introduction Section.

METHODS & MATERIALS:

Must add the methods to your article

Methods & Materials Report: Method & Materials are blank.

RESULT:

Must add result in your article.

Result Report: Result report is blank .

CONCLUSION:

Plagiarism is an academic dishonesty, we have to be able to distinguish between our own work and others work, this it is very important to cite the sources used. In case we are stuck we have to contact our instructor or professor.We need to be original and creative in our work, otherwise it is an offense to copy or rephrase every word or sentence without the actual quotations from the actual person.My sincere request to all readers is that please be original in your work, and it is our utmost duty to report any mishandling of information to the official concerned so that we are able to protect the rights of others and purity of one's work.

Conclusion Report: The Text is Rounded off with a Conclusion that Discusses the Implication of The Findings & Ideas Discussed & Their Impact on Future Research Direction.
