ABSTRACT:

In India both organized and unorganized sectors co-exists in all sectors. This division is clearly visible in retail sector also since 2005 onwards. The organized retail shops operate in each and every city. It is said that the overhead expenses of the organized retailers are less burdensome compared to the unorganized retailers. The same is the case with the payment of taxes. Government of Maharashtra abolished Octroi and introduced Local Body Tax last year.

Abstract Report: The Title Accurately Said The Study was About.

INTRODUCTION:

Organized retail shops are giant shops run by corporate companies, having branches all over the country selling variety of commodities of different companies. The emergence of organized retail shops in Indian cities marked since 2005 onwards. Now there are minimum five to ten organized shops operates in each city. Organized shops deal with a variety of commodities like grocery, vegetables, consumer durables, lifestyle goods etc.

Introduction Report: This Article Include Full Introduction, Methods & Introduction Section.

METHODS & MATERIALS:

This research study is based on both primary and secondary data. Primary data includes the information collected from 15 unorganized retail traders' deals with consumer durables, operating in the study area and the municipal corporation authorities. Secondary data source consists of the revenue reports of the local authority published in the newspapers, Municipal corporation website and news paper articles.

Methods & Materials Report: Tables/Boxes/Diagram & Images are Used to Explain Specific Points or Background Information. Figures That The Plotted Parameters are Clearly Mentioned.

SUGGESTIONS:

1. In LBT, there should be a separate desk for different sections of traders and proper guidance and information should be provided to the traders.
2. Unnecessary and unproductive paper works to be avoided to ensure canon of convenience.
3. There should be a Committee of trading Organizations and consumer bodies under the chairmanship of Commissioner who should discuss to solve the common problems of traders, once in a month.

Suggestions Report: Figures are Imported to Provide Explanation for Background Information. Conclusion of This Paper Clearly Supported Results.

CONCLUSION:

Implementation of LBT in Maharashtra raised a lot of protests from traders across the state they feared that it will add to harassment by officials, maintaining accounts will increase their workload and financial burden. Local bodies are trying to convince the traders. After a yearlong effort, they complied with the LBT norms. The LBT department has been taking various steps to help the traders like conducting meetings on every Thursday, opening LBT payment counters in banks etc.

Conclusion Report: The Text is Rounded off with a Conclusion that Discusses the Implication of The Findings & Ideas Discussed & Their Impact on Future Research Direction.
