ABSTRACT

Postcolonial literature addresses the issues of political and cultural independence of the ex-colonized countries. It is a discourse that seriously takes into account the emerging identity of postcolonial people in terms of their native values, indigenous use of language and retheorizing of literature and culture. Postcolonial theory explores how colonial ideology, strategies of representation, and racial prejudices are coded into the literary texts.

REVIEWER COMMENTS

- This was a superb give an account of extremely intensive examination.
- The writing audit was careful, the approach was carefully exhaustive and fused the utilization of sufficient quantities of tests in dust size examination and blast tests.
- I discover no shortcoming at all with the routines, information examination, or conclusions.
- The work, as with all work advancing from this specific gathering, is
