ABSTRACT

The deprived groups can be classified in a number of ways, suffering from cultural, economic, political and social deprivation. The traditional method of classification is made in terms of scheduled castes, scheduled tribes and other backward classes. People belonging to remote hilly areas, forest areas, desert areas and slum areas etc. are also classified as such. The entire tribal population comes under the category of deprived sections.

Introduction

From the ancient period in India most of the backward class people have been living in the society with different culture, values and lifestyle out of the civilized society. According to the 1981 census, 7.76% of the total populations of India are tribal people and there are 427 sub castes in them.

A Good Introduction :-

Depict the significance (importance) of the study - why was this value doing in any case? Give a wide connection. Extremely briefly depict the exploratory configuration and how it achieved the expressed destinations.

Materials

The area of the study is Totopara in the district of Jalpaiguri at the present district of Alipurduar in West Bengal. In the present context, the area of the study is very minimize and concise for the specific discussion to the concerned topic.

A Good Materials :-

Materials may be accounted for in a different passage or else they may be distinguished alongside your systems. In biosciences we habitually work with arrangements - allude to them by name and portray totally, including convergences of all reagents, and pH of watery arrangements, dissolvable if non-fluid.

Result

Must add result in your article.

A Good Result :-

Results are as per aims and objective and useful to further research .

Conclusion

The study focuses that the socio-economic status and education of the Toto community are backward. The cultivation is the main occupation of the Toto community but their cultivating approach is very primitive now. The maximum numbers of people are illiterate due to want of awareness and interest of education.

A Good Conclusion :-

You may propose future headings, for example, how the analysis may be adjusted to achieve an alternate target. Clarify the majority of your perceptions however much as could be expected, concentrating on systems.
