Introduction

Emotional competence refers to one's ability to express or release one's inner feelings (emotions). It is described as the essential social skills to recognize, interpret, and respond constructively to emotions in ourselves and others.

A Good Introduction :-

Depict the significance (importance) of the study - why was this value doing in any case? Give a wide connection. Extremely briefly depict the exploratory configuration and how it achieved the expressed destinations.

Materials

The study was conducted in Cuddalore district of Tamil Nadu and survey method was employed. The sample was divided into different categories on the basis of gender, location of college, nature of institution and family type. From 19 colleges 800 samples were selected.

A Good Materials :-

Materials may be accounted for in a different passage or else they may be distinguished alongside your systems. In biosciences we habitually work with arrangements - allude to them by name and portray totally, including convergences of all reagents, and pH of watery arrangements, dissolvable if non-fluid.

Result

Must add result in your article.

A Good Result :-

Results are as per aims and objective and useful to further research .

Conclusion

This study reveals that the emotional competence of graduate students is average level. The present study clearly shows that, there is significant difference between boys and girls in their emotional competence.

A Good Conclusion :-

The research have wider scope for new academician and research scholars.

REVIEWER COMMENTS

- The work, as with all work advancing from this specific gathering, is generally sound.
- My remarks here are concerned singularly with the association of the composition.
- Thought of these focuses will, I accept, lead to an enhanced report that better shows the key ideas and conclusions.
- Generally, this is a reasonable, brief, and elegantly composed original
