REVIEW OF THE ARTICLE

Socio Economic Development Of Powerloom Workers- A Case Study Of Sircilla Weavers Of Karimnagar District In Telangana

Dr. Mohd Akbar Ali Khan¹ and Mrs. Nikhat Sultana²

ABSTRACT:

The TITLE matches with the contents of the paper The Indian textile industry has an overwhelming presence in the economic life of the country. Weaving is that occupation which is considered as sacred and respected in that sense. In the present scenario of competition and diversity, the Indian Textile industry has witnessed the fluctuations and the worst outcome of these fluctuations has affected the socio-economic position of weavers. The present study is undertaken to know the significance of Income, Debts, Savings and Financial support on Socio-economic development of Sircilla Powerloom weavers.

INTRODUCTION:

The introduction provides a good, generalized background of the topic that quickly gives the reader an appreciation Textile industry in India is the second largest industry after agriculture providing employment to over 35 million people which significantly includes women work force. As per Ministry of Textiles the industry contributes 14 percent to industrial production, 4 percent to GDP and 13 percent to the country's export earnings. Textile as a product has played vital role in the economic development of the country.

METHODOLOGY:

The present study was exclusively realized on secondary data sources. It was purely descriptive type of research since it describes the facts relating to the problem. Telangana State has 10 Districts of which Karimnagar, Warangal and Nalgonda districts are quiet famous for Powerloom industry. However, Sircilla mandal of Karimnagar district was selected for the study as this region has highest concentration of powerloom workers.

PRESENTATION OF RESULTS:

The amount of data presented was sufficient and appropriate The Indian Textile industry is diverse catering to different needs. Weavers being a skilled labour became meager with poor living conditions. The reason is improper fluctuations in textile industry with inadequate modernization.

REFERENCES:

Prior publication by the author(s) of substantial portions of the data or study was appropriately acknowledged.

RELEVANCE:

The study was relevant to the mission of the journal or its audience. The study addresses important problems or issues; the study was worth doing.
