REVIEW OF THE ARTICLE

Mughal Gardens: The Hub Of Kashmir Tourism

Zahoor Yousf Sofi¹ and Dr. J. Rubavathi²

ABSTRACT:

The problem statement was clear and well articulated Tourism at present is the largest industry in the world. Tourism is the temporary, short-term movement of people to destination outside the places where they normally live and work and their activities during the stay at each destination. Tourism frames massive and continuous flow of people to more and more all around the globe. In recent years tourism has undergone several major shifts. Now tourism is an organized industry in which it entered in the multinationals, by means of transport which carry people in bulk to far-off places has increased rapidly.

INTRODUCTION:

The introduction provides a good, generalized background of the topic that quickly gives the reader an appreciation The annexation of the Kashmir valley dated back to Akbar's conquest in 1586, when the resistance offered by the Chak sultanate to the aggressive force of the Mughals. Brave though the Chaks were they lacked the qualities essential for making of successful rulers and administration.

METHODOLOGY:

Author has not mentioned any specific methodology. This study was descriptive in nature. Must add methodology in your article. Methodology used to per research topic.

PRESENTATION OF RESULTS:

The amount of data presented was sufficient and appropriate. Tables, graphs, or figures were used judiciously and agree with the text Tourism at present is the largest industry in the world. Tourism is the temporary, short-term movement of people to destination outside the places where they normally live and work and their activities during the stay at each destination. Tourism frames massive and continuous flow of people to more and more all around the globe. The Mughal gardens play an important role in attracting the tourists from both domestic as well as foreign.
