ARTICLE REVIEW REPORT

“Teacher’s Awareness Of Assistive Technology In Relation To Its Usage In Hearing Impaired Schools”.

Ms. Shakunthala N.D.¹ and Dr. G. Sheela²

ABSTRACT:

The problem statement was clear and well articulated Assistive technology (AT) is an area of the curriculum, as well as a tool for learning, in which teachers must demonstrate their own awareness and capacity for learning. In other words, for effective and meaningful teaching in the present information age, the demonstration of teachers’ awareness for instructional use of AT cannot be underscored.

INTRODUCTION:

The introduction provides a good, generalized background of the topic that quickly gives the reader an appreciation Education is a lifelong process and it permeates every aspect of an individual’s life. Education is the process to shape the quality of life which in turn enhances the quality of the society and the universe as a whole. Primary education and its universalization is a natural commitment and an important concern all over the state of India. A school is an institution designed for teaching the students under the direction of teachers.

METHODOLOGY:

The present study was exclusively realized on secondary data sources. It was purely descriptive type of research since it describes the facts relating to the problem. Survey method was adopted for this study. Data was collected from all the Heads of the Institutions and teachers from ten schools for hearing impaired in Bengaluru.

PRESENTATION OF RESULTS:

The amount of data presented was sufficient and appropriate. Tables, graphs, or figures were used judiciously and agree with the text During implementation of the AT, it is essential to locate equipment where instruction and learning has to take place, preferably selecting low-tech applications, the accessibility and integration of the use of AT into lessons should be ensured in a purposeful and meaningful way.

REFERENCES:

Prior publication by the author(s) of substantial portions of the data or study was appropriately acknowledged.

RELEVANCE:

The study was relevant to the mission of the journal or its audience. The study addresses important problems or issues; the study was worth doing.
